

WFA Honey Producer's Pledge

The signature(s) on this pledge binds the named affiliated WFA producer(s) to the spirit and practice of wholesome beekeeping according to WFA principles.

All WFA affiliated producers must complete, sign and return this form to WFA HQ before any trading can take place using the WFA symbol.

Section A

1. Name(s) .....
2. Number of hives in production.....
3. Membership of horticultural, agricultural, organic or sympathetic to organic groups.
.....
.....
4. Please give details of any agricultural or horticultural qualifications.
.....
.....
5. List of products you are selling:
.....
.....
6. Name and address of your retail outlet, farmers' market, farmgate, shop or other.
.....
.....

I/WE undertake and pledge to:

- Produce honey according to Section B and WFA principles.
- Discuss and peacefully resolve any disagreements or disputes.

Signed ..... Date ..... Name.....

Signed ..... Date ..... Name.....

PLEASE PHOTOCOPY THIS FORM: retain one copy, send the original to WFA and make further copies to give to retailers and show to any customers who want more information about your growing methods.

Section B

1. I agree to use of renewable, natural materials in hive construction (e.g. wood from sustainable sources in preference to polystyrene) Yes or No

2. No synthetic chemical or medicinal treatments (i.e. no pyrethroids, no prophylactic treatments including antibiotics, no organo-phosphates). Organic acids (e.g. oxalic, formic) and powdered sugar are permitted. Do you agree to this? Yes or No

3. I agree to Allow the bees to build their own comb in preference to the use of foundation. Yes or No

4. I agree to use top bar hives in preference to framed hives. Yes or No

5. I agree to produce Honey sold either in the comb, or cold extracted and strained but not fine filtered to remove pollen grains. Yes or No